

Privacy Policy

The West Virginia Association of Pathologists operates wv-ap.org to provide ease of access to membership services.

This page serves to inform website visitors regarding our policy on collection, use and disclosure of personal information. Individuals choosing to use our service agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy. Personal information that we collect is used to provide and improve membership services. We will not use, share, or sell your information with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Use

For access to membership services, we may require you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information, including but not limited to your name, professional background, phone number, email address, and postal address. The information that we collect will be used to contact or identify you.

Cookies

“Cookies” are files with small amount of data that are commonly used as an anonymous unique identifier. These are sent to your browser from the website that you visit and are stored on your computer’s hard drive. Our website may use these cookies to collect information and to improve your experience of our service. Most browsers grant you the option to either accept or refuse these cookies. If you choose to refuse our cookies, it may impact your ability to use all features on our website.

Security

We value your trust in providing us with your Personal Information. Though we cannot guarantee absolute security, we are striving to use commercially acceptable means of protecting it. You are responsible for keeping your password for website access confidential as we will not ask you for your password except as prompted when you log in to our website.

Links to Other Sites

Our service may contain links to other sites that are managed by a third party, and as such you will be directed to that site. Such external sites are not operated by us. Therefore, we recommend that you review the Privacy Policy of any external third-party website. We have no control over, and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. Thus, we advise you to review this page periodically for any changes. The new Privacy Policy will be posted on this page after which they will be effective immediately.
